

Establishing principles for smarter rules

Develop a common, shared understanding of how EU Environmental legislation could work better

1 Research, discussion and dialogue

Bringing together views from experts from different backgrounds

2 Practical recommendations

Defining concrete principles for smart drafting and application of EU environmental rules

3 Results

Applying principles to improve rules and their implementation